

May 5, 2026

Dear Valued Customer:

Effective with new orders received May 5, 2026, Gerdau Long Steel North America will be increasing the transactional price of Concrete Reinforcing Bar Products in the United States by $1.50/cwt ($30 per net ton).

All orders confirmed by the end of business May 4, 2026, will be price protected if shipped by May 17, 2026.

We will continue to monitor the market to ensure Gerdau and its partners are on a competitive playing field and reserve the right to make adjustments to our pricing policy as needed.

If you have any questions, please contact your Gerdau Long Steel North America representative. We appreciate your continued support and look forward to satisfying your future steel requirements.

Sincerely,
